Our policies

We operate a number of internal policies to ensure that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. These include:

1. Anti-slavery policy. This policy sets out the organisation's stance on modern slavery and explains how employees can identify any instances of this and where they can go for help.
2. Recruitment policy. We operate a robust recruitment policy, including conducting eligibility to work in the UK checks for all employees to safeguard against human trafficking or individuals being forced to work against their will.
3. Whistleblowing policy. We operate a whistleblowing policy so that all employees know that they can raise concerns about how colleagues are being treated, or practices within our business or supply chain, without fear of reprisals.
4. Code of Business conduct. This code explains the manner in which we behave as an organisation and how we expect our employees and suppliers to act.

Our suppliers

Due to the nature of our business and the supply of vehicles and spare parts that are exclusively derived from Renault Trucks and Isuzu Trucks UK we rely on their policies, procedures and Codes of Conduct to ensure that we are compliant with the Act as it is not possible for us to directly review and confirm compliance of their supply chain. Renault Trucks and Isuzu Trucks UK have been assessed as medium risk suppliers. Other UK suppliers are assessed as being low risk.

Volvo Group have confirmed the following:

1. That they have been a signatory to the United Nations Global Compact since 2001 and strive to align their selves to the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.
2. That they have established a Human Rights Board, composed of relevant members of their Executive Board. During 2023 a Human Rights Risks and Maturity Assessment project was implemented.
3. Since 1996 their sustainable purchasing programme has consistently increased supplier requirements relating to environmental issues, business ethics and human rights.
4. That they operate a global Supplier Code of Conduct updated in 2023 which includes, amongst other things, principles on human rights and social justice, due diligence requirements and zero tolerance to child and forced labour and is an integrated part of their standard supplier contracts.
5. That have carried out a risk analysis to identify the highest risks of forced labour and human trafficking in their operations value chain.
6. Human Rights reviews were completed in United Arab Emirates and Algeria during 2023 and no adverse findings relating to modern slavery identified.
7. That they continue with a Sustainable Mineral Program including a conflict minerals programme and are a member of the Responsible Minerals Initiative. These tackle human rights related risks at the bottom of the supply chain and in 2023 1,043 Tier 1 were included. Due to the war between Russia and Ukraine following UK and EU sanctions all Russian smelters have been automatically rated as nonconformant.

Our anti-slavery policy forms part of our contract with all suppliers and they are required to confirm that no part of their business operations contradicts this policy.

Our performance indicators

We will know the effectiveness of the steps that we are taking to ensure that slavery and/or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain if no reports are received from employees, the public, or law enforcement agencies to indicate that modern slavery practices have been identified.

We confirm no such reports have been received during 2023.
